Thank you for copying me into your letter to Rt Hon Iain Duncan Smith MP, Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, dated 21st February.

I was hugely flattered by your kind words about my work on the Jobs Fair in January. Of course, I owe the event's success to the hard work and participation of nearly forty local companies and was tremendously impressed by the level of enthusiasm they showed for the fair.

As we move forward with plans to launch the Jobs Clubs, I heartily thank you and Winchmore Brickwork for your continued support. In these difficult economic times, you play a key role in allowing our community to come together to give opportunities to local jobseekers.

I do hope the Secretary of State has by now responded to your letter, and I thank you again for your unfailing support as we move forward with this new initiative. I look forward to staying in touch as the clubs progress.

With every best wish,

Kind regards,
